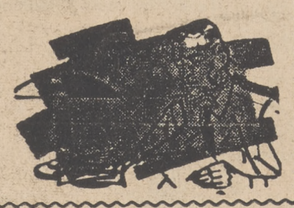
The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin



Railroads Blow It Again

A few weeks back Senator Allen Cranston (D.Calif.) asked that the federal government be barred from interfering with California's pioneer efforts to combat noise pollution.

It was collateral effort with other lawmakers who are developing innovative legislation that would control industrial, transportation, and "other noise-emitting equipment injurious to the public health." Included in the proposed legislation is "noise-level labelling."

Such legislation could come none too soon.

Attention is directed at two items; both of which indicate the awesomeness of modern-day noise.

The freeways. Many newsmen have reason to stop alongside freeways in pursuit of newspapering duties. Such stops are lonely. Nowhere on this earth can a person feel so alone and completely ignored. The speed of vehicles from a standstill point of view is frightening. But the noise. That is something else. It is nerve shattering and constant. Cranston's bill would have to be based on a lot of research if freeway noise is going to be diluted.

The other — railroads — is easier to resolve. Reference is made to the San Diego, Arizona and Eastern railway — the equipment of which plys its way along the tracks of Lemon Grove. Frequently the engineer pulls the string of his whistle for a period far in excess of need.

Since the train creeps along about 10 miles per hour, the three or four blocks over which the engineer has his whistle on is injurious to the nervous health of those who live or are on business alongside the tracks.

Several years ago we viewed SDAE's whistle blowing with considerable alarm. In an editorial we pointed out how the rail tycoons had bilked early Americans out of thousands of miles of land which they said they needed to develop cross-country transportation. In some instances the land they got was miles wide. Much of the wealth of the railroads has come from the use and sale of the land they got without charge. Grimy facilities were later built near towns contributing to slum development and messing up of the ecology in the process.

Now they arrogantly blow their whistle at us without concern for the disruption the noise creates.

Earlier we urged that Congress require the San Diego and Eastern, and its parent firm, the Southern Pacific Railway, to put their facilities underground in built up areas. We were only having a litle fun, of course. But Southern Pacific didn't think so. They sent a couple of geezers down from San Francisco — their home office — to quieten down the natives.

The portly pair (all railway officials are portly) walked into the newspaper office, dressed to the guards; even to the wearing of felt hats.

They were reasonable gents even though their business cards revealed that they were vice presidents of Southern Pacific.

They sat down and explained the great contribution railroads had made to the growth of the nation. They looked a little uncomfortable when asked about the cutbacks in passenger service which was just beginning to be popular with railroad tycoons at that time.

Finally we came into agreement.

They said the whistle blowing could be cut down but it would not be cut out because it was a traffic safety device.

They were told that a quieter railroad engine would make a happier press.

We shook hands. A sadistic thought crossed the editor's mind. How very effective it would be if "ol' 1125" would rumble by—right now—and prove the noise quotient point. But it didn't.

Until lately, whistle-blowing has been minimized. Now there is an engineer with a heavy hand on the cord. Not only Southern Pacific, but Senator Allen Cranston, too, shall get the fall-out via this column.

Cranston, you see, is a former newsman and train whistles annoy all newsmen.

White Cane Project Tops For One Day

It took about 30 people to do it but members of the Lions club, and their friends, acquired about $700 Saturday in Lemon Grove as their part of White Cane Days.

The funds are used to sight conservation generally and for screening for vision defects in kindergarten and first grade youngsters at Lemon Grove schools.

Of the $700, $400 was collected on the street and in parking lots. The rest of the proceeds came from contributors responding to letters to local leaders asking for contributions.

Bonnie Shumate, Lions president, said that as much as $1,000 more is expected as the remainder of the mail contributions come in and white cane cannisters are collected and contents totaled.

Vision preservation is the prime project of Lions International. The local club is a heavy contributor to the Sight Clinic in Balboa Park.

Committee for this year's White Cane Days project is Shumate, Bob Russell, LG CoC president; Dr. Jerry Legerton, local optometrist, and Jim Dorman, school board trustee and chairman of the L.G. Planning Association.

Shumate is a member of the L.G. Fire District Board of Directors.

SV Man Guilty Of VW Surgery

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A Spring Valley man who pleaded guilty to receiving stolen property, in the cutting up of Volkswagens for their parts, was put on five years probation Friday in Superior Court and ordered to make restitution to the car owners.

Kenneth Lloyd Andrew, 24, of 1539 Campo rd., was arrested in August when sheriff's deputies found nine of the foreign cars at the bottom of a 300-foot canyon, just off Pitts Valley road.

Andrew was arrested after A. R. Carlson gave the sheriff's office the license number of a pick-up on his property. The suspect had spare Volkswagen parts in his truck when arrested.

Andrew told officers that he cut up the cars but that they were stolen by an Alpine man who has not yet been arrested.

The owners of the stolen cars are to be paid back by Andrew.

Rest Home Sued For $1½ Millions

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A suit against a Lemon Grove convalescent center, asking damages of $1,500,000 for the death of a 17-year-old patient, was filed Friday in Superior Court.

The defendant is Casa Blanca Convalescent Center, 8351 Broadway, Lemon Grove, and the plaintiff is Lloyd Rash, of San Diego, the father of Rosemary Rash. The girl entered the center in May, after being until then at Fairview State Hospital, Costa Mesa. She died on Aug. 8.

The suit discloses that the girl had been paralysed since birth, a victim of cerebral palsy. It claims that she was a paying patient and died as the result of a fall from her bed, strangling in the restraint harness in which she had been placed.

The action alleges that improper supervision resulted in the girl's death.

Joe Ouelette Seeks Seat On LG Fire Board

Levite "Joe" Ouelette, 56, of 7325 Beryl st., Lemon Grove, is one of three candidates for the two seats on the Lemon Grove Fire District. He is running against incumbents Bonnie Shumate and John N. Hemmer. The election is Nov. 2.

Ouelette, a retired North Island metalsmith, said his interest was aroused in the fire department when Fred Ruolo a fire district director, lived next to him. Ruolo has since, moved from here and died. Ruolo was a former fire captain in the east.

Joe Ouelette

Ouelette claims no previous administrative experience. "As far as I know, the department is well run. I haven't had any experience but I want to learn. I have time on my hands and could be contributing some-

Board OK's Unification Plan For Grossmont Area

JUBILEE AWARD — Mrs. Lois Heiserman accepts the Soroptimist Jubilee Award from County Supervisor Harry Scheidle at Tuesday's Board meeting. The award was made by Soroptimist International to the Lemon Grove club, through Supervisor Scheidle, for accomplishments in a series of programmed events. Soroptimists is a service club of professional women.

L.G. Soroptimists Win Golden Jubilee Award

The County Board of Supervisors honored the Lemon Grove Soroptimists club Tuesday by presenting it with the American Federation of Soroptimists' Jubilee award.

The award, granted for achieving certain standards in a prescribed program, was offered this year to mark the Golden Anniversary of the Soroptimist organization. Soroptimist is a professional women's service club.

Accepting the award from Supervisor Harry Scheidle was Mrs. R. Heiserman, Soroptimist past president, under whose regime the award was earned.

The five required categories in which the Lemon Grove club was qualified were:

Service to Youth: Citizenship Award to Monte Vista High School student Sue Collier; yearly scholarship to a Grossmont College student; contributions to the Lemon Grove Youth Center and to a Mexican orphanage.

Public Affairs: Survey on the advisability of procuring of locally controlled ambulance service for Lemon Grove.

Promotion of International Goodwill and Understanding: The financing and hostessing of a visit from an Austrian Soroptimist to Lemon Grove; selling of UNESCO Christmas cards.

Extension of Soroptimism: Chartering of an "S" Club at Mt. Miguel High School. This is a girls' service club based on Soroptimist ideals and objectives.

Contribution to the American Federation of Soroptimists' Foundation Project: Contribution of $5 a member toward purchase of a dental wing in the Sage Hospital in New Mexico.

Accompanying Mrs. Heiserman to the award presentation were Mrs. M. E. Carlen, current Lemon Grove Soroptimist Club president, who attended Soroptimist International Convention in Rome in July and Dr. E. S. Lauritzen who has just returned from a European trip during which she visited seven European Soroptimist Clubs and attended the Golden Jubilee Celebration of Liverpool, England's Soroptimist Divisional Union.

Four District Concept Gets Board Approval

The San Diego County Board of Education last week voted unanimously to submit to voters a four-way split unification plan for the Grossmont High School District.

The plan calls for splitting the high school district into four areas and unifying the eight elementary districts with the divisions, thereby creating four districts that would serve grades kindergarten through twelve.

Under the proposed plan, the following district would be created:

One made up of the present Santee School District. The new district would include Santana High School.

One made up of Lakeside and Alpine districts, along with a small portion of the Cajon Valley Union District. The new district would include El Capitan High School.

One made up of Lemon Grove, and La Mesa-Spring Valley districts, along with a small southern portion of the Cajon Valley district, and excluding a small portion of the La Mesa district. The new district would include Mount Miguel, Monte Vista, Helix, and Grossmont High Schools.

One made up of most of the Cajon Valley district, plus a small piece of the La Mesa district, along with the Dehesa and Jamul-Las Flores School Districts. The new district will include El Cajon Valley, Granite Hills and Valhalla High Schools.

Under the plan, the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley-La Mesa district would be the largest with about 30,000 students, and the Lakeside-Alpine district would be the smallest with about 10,000 youngsters.

Trustees made it clear at the meeting that they would be willing to reverse the position and offer another plan if the four-way split can be proved less adequate than other proposals.

Portia Goode, who for many years served on the Grossmont High School District Board before retiring this year, was on hand at the meeting, and voiced her opinions on the plan.

Mrs. Goode warned trustees against splitting the high school district into such small pieces as to hurt some of the vauable programs now in existence.

Her comments were aimed at such programs as El Cajon Valley High School's agricultural program, which students from all over the district attend. Other such programs include a printing class at Helix High and a vocational education course at Santana.

Presently, any student who wishes to take a class or classes at any other school in the district than the one he or she is attending, may do so.

If the four-way unification were in effect, students would be able to attend only one of the schools serving his or her district.

After the meeting, Mrs. Goode said that she did not feel the board favored the four-district plan, but rather only approved it to gain comments from the public.

She added that the board probably favored either the one-district concept or the two-district plan, but considered the three-district plan unworkable.

A public hearing on the unification plan will be held November 3, with a December 9 meeting scheduled for the County Board of Education's final action.

After the December 9 meeting, the county board will make its recommendations to the State School Board, supporting one of the four plans.

In January, the state board will make its final decision, with the plan chosen at that time to be submitted to voters at the June 6 election.

A similar four-district plan was submitted to the state board in 1964, but was rejected because it failed to meet requirement size and assessed valuation.

The four-district plan now under consideration also fails the requirements for assessed valuation, although the size requirements are met. A State Senate bill now being considered in Sacramento, if passed would call for areawide equalization, which would change the requirements and make the four-district plan feasible.

Small Businesses Hold Key To United Crusade

Small businesses hold the key to success or failure in this year's Lemon Grove United Crusade campaign.

This statement was made by community chairman Jim Boyd at a meeting with his division chairmen to analyze last year's results and to determine this year's prospects.

"With a 15 percent increase expected over the amount raised in 1970," said Boyd, "we were forced to carefully analyze previous results and determine where we could get the 'extra'.

"Last year's campaign, which raised 98 percent of its goal, showed increases over 1969 in all areas except small businesses and residential-special gifts. The business division dropped $859. The always remarkable school district came through with an increase of $1117 which was a lifesaver.

With more than 175 small businesses listed in Lemon Grove, an army of some twenty volunteers will be needed to do the job. Anyone wishing to assist in this division of the Crusade should contact Boyd.

WELCOME HOME HENRY!

Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Switched to Supervisor Boney

By Dick Sims

SAN DIEGO (CNA)—County supervisors finished slicing up the political pie on Tuesday and Supervisor Jack Walsh got his in the face. But Lemon Grove and Spring Valley got back Henry Boney after about three years.

Walsh's first district has pivoted around Point Loma nearly 180 degrees. Instead of running northeastward through San Diego it now runs southeastward, taking in all of the South Bay cities, retaining only the Point Loma area, where he lives, in San Diego.

Harry Scheidle, who voted with Walsh, had his district also undergo a massive shift and he will no longer represent Lemon Grove and Spring Valley, but will pick up much of Walsh's district.

William Craven's north county fifth district loses Santee and Lakeside to Henry A. Boney's second district, but picks up a substantial number of San Diego residents in Clairemont and elsewhere.

Boney leaves South Bay for inland District No. 2 which includes Lemon Grove, La Mesa, El Cajon and Spring Valley.

Jim Bear, who drew up the winning Plan 14 (a modification of his Plan 13), drops National City and gains more San Diego area.

Scheidle's new third district even includes the eastern portion of Poway. Henry Boney's district once contained Lemon Grove and Spring Valley when it was the third district.

Bear said the county could be proud of Plan 14. He said it follows the concept of creating north, east and south county districts, unites the minority communities of southeast San Diego, and meets the "one man, one vote" principle.

He said it is a plan that will stand up in the future.

The final action was taken by adoption of an ordinance and Walsh argued that since the ordinance has a 30-day referendum period before becoming effective the board could not act on Oct. 5 and meet the Nov. 1 deadline.

Assistant County Counsel Don Clark said that the law calls for the board to act on redistricting by Nov. 1 after each 10-year U. S. Census.

He said if the state law had meant before Oct. 1, it would have said so.

The hearing lasted for three hours, although some of this time was taken up by the long board argument.

The board can redistrict any time it wants to except within 90 days of a general election or within 90 days of another redistricting.

Credit Card Theft Brings Prison Term

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A 41-year-old Lemon Grove clearing woman was sent to state prison for up to 10 years last week after pleading guilty to theft of a credit card and its illegal use.

Marlys Den Hartog, of 3559 Harris st., was arrested Aug. 20 while trying to buy a $90 projector with a credit card not her own. Mrs. Hartog had been held in the county jail since her arrest. She pleaded guilty on Sept. 2.

Her probation report showed she was already on probation for cashing bad checks.

Local Doctors Are Diplomates

KANSAS CITY, MO. — Two doctors from Lemon Grove have been named charter diplomats of the American Board of Family Practice as a result of passing a certification examination administered under the direction of the American Board of Family Practice.

To achieve diplomate status Drs. S. C. Brumbaugh, Jr. and T. R. Early, through an intensive 2-day written examination, proved their ability in the areas of internal medicine, surgery, obstetrics-gynecology, pediatrics, psychiatry, preventive medicine and other traditional specialities and now are certified in medicine's newest specialty — Family Practice. The 3,285 doctors, nationally, who earned their diplomate distinction, are the vanguard of a new type of highly competent "people doctor" who accepts responsibility for the patient's total health care and serves as the natural point of entry into the complex medical system.

The men are associated with the Lemon Grove Medical Group.

Unite For Progress' Is Kiwanis Plan

In a two-nation-wide effort, the United States and Canadian Kiwanis clubs will concentrate their energies, commencing this fall, on "closing the generation gap and the communication gap" with a program called "Unite for Progress," according to Warren C. Bellows, president of the Kiwanis Club of Spring Valley.

To implement the idea, Kiwanis clubs will undertake joint community survey, analysis, and action programs with Key Clubs, which they sponsor in high schools, Circle K Clubs, which they sponsor in colleges, and with other youth groups with which they are closely associated, such as Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Girls and Boys Clubs, 4H Clubs, FFA, Camp Fire Girls, and others.

Ranking high in community problems to be attacked will be drug abuse and concern for the environment. Kiwanis has two established programs which will be adapted to the findings in such fields — "Operation Drug Alert," which is a drug education program, and "Project Environment," a new program aimed at determining the extent of waste and pollution.

In announcing his club's participation in the "Unite for Progress" program, Bellows described it as a positive effort to combine the enthusiasm, energy and, in some cases, the impatience of young people with the experience and the ability to "open doors."

"With real joint effort, from the very start, we can do much to obliterate the often perplexing problems of the generation and the communication gaps," Bellows said. "I believe that people who work together and plan together will be able to achieve together, and that mutual respect and understanding will be inevitable."

Swift Retires From Public Works Center

Spring Valley resident Larry Swift of 8422 Garwood ct., has retired ending a 23-year Navy civil service career. He's been employed with the San Diego Navy Public Works Center for the past six years.

At retirement time he served with the Center Material Department and was the Supervisory Automotive Equipment Specialist in the PWC Transportation Department Shop Store No. 2.

Swift has an unusual hobby with ties going back to an earlier era when crossword puzzles were the craze, Army transport planes had flown around the world in a record 175 days, and the hit song was "California, Here I Come."

He's an antique car collector. He previously owned three of the aged relics. His present one-car collection consists of a 1932 Plymouth. He's a former member of the San Diego Antique Car Club.

His hobby has ties going back in time to an age when courtship became motorized and the automobile was frequently denounced from the pulpit as "one of the deadliest enemies of the church."

It was an age when the auto began making inroads into every American family whether they could afford it or not. It was a period when a cross-country tour was an adventure comparable to a covered wagon trek during the "gold rush" days.

Swift outlined some of the highlights of his civil service career.

"The biggest changes have been in control and issue of material. Of course, the Navy has also turned more and more to automation in recent years," Swift explained.

He said the retirement years will give him and his wife Cleo a chance to travel and do a little fishing. These years will also allow time to vist his son, daughter and six grandchildren.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor,

Norman Casserley, midwife, delivered my eleventh child at home naturally, and he is now the little girl's godfather. I have only four living children, having lost seven in hospital deliveries.

The birth took place in a happy, clean environment. Soon afterwards, I vacuumed my 1,400 square feet of rugs and did five loads of washing. I had an ecstatic time, because I had no medication, tears or hemorrhaging; and no one rushed off with my new bundle of joy. My husband, children and mom enjoyed our family centered natural homebirth.

We definitely do not want any Board of Medical Examiners' injunction against our midwife, Norman, as we want three more living children delivered by him.

Dear Editor,

The Foothill Taxpayers Association has endorsed the Jarvis "Property Taxation Initiative Constitutional Amendment".

Most of the following information is written by Walter Bills of Los Angeles County. Our association would like to give him credit for his clear thinking which is listed below in quotation marks.

For years, we believe, home owners have lived in small worlds of their own with heads in the sand; like ostrichs hoping that if they didn't see what happened it wouldn't happen and everything would be all right.

"The bureaucrats, politicians, relief recipients and everyone else who needed a transfusion of blood knew where to get it easy, fast and sure — from residential and income property owners. The politicians and bureaucrats, to appease the hand-out seekers, know how to play both ends against the middle; to placate those who want more of the good things of life all they had to do was raise property taxes higher and higher.

"Now these people are no fools. They know the property owners are not organized, that their investments are fixed to the land, that they do not complain and are completely defenseless against an attack on their property. Apathy, ignorance and indifference on the part of many owners have created many of the conditions which prevail, and owners are in grave danger of becoming modern day serfs whose whole function will be to feed the tax collector.

"Philip Watson, Los Angeles County Assessor, has made the statement that if something is not done to curb taxes they will double within the next two years!

The Foothill Taxpayers Association now has Jarvis information sheets. They point out that churches used for worship, schools, and other necessary services will still receive tax exemption. It is interesting to note that some of the now tax-exempt properties are the "high-rises" and chain stores who have sold to "tax-exempt foundations". Charitable Trusts own 16 Billion Dollars of California Real Estate for which they pay no taxes.

Only 30% of the land of California is privately owned and taxed.

Because of taxes, our ownership of property is at a dead end; a blind alley where it takes years upon years to pay off homes. The only way out is to help get petitions signed and get this initiative on the ballot and then work to get it passed.

Mrs. Waldo Clark,
President,
Foothill Taxpayers
Association

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

"Lo importante" is an idiomatic expression. We may translate "lo" into English as "it." "Importante" is easily translatable to "important." By expanding "lo importante" to "Lo importante es comer." we construct a model phrase which means "It is important to eat."

From the model phrase "Lo importante es" we may construct many other phrases simply by adding infinitives like "estudiar" (to study), "leer" (to read), "escribir" (to write), "hablar" (to speak), and "pensar" (to think).

"Lo importante es estudiar." would be translated "It is important to study." Other examples of this pattern are seen in "Lo importante es leer." (It is important to read.), "Lo importante es hablar." (It is important to speak.), and "Lo importante es pensar." (It is important to think.).

"Lo mas importante" amplifies the meaning to "The most important (thing)." Thus we may say "Lo mas importante es vivir." (The most important "thing" is to live.) or "Lo mas importante es amar." (It is most important to love.) A leading question may be "Que es lo mas importante?" (What is "of" the most importance?) or (What's most important?).

"Los menos importante" expresses that which is of "the least importance." This may be used in phrases like "Lo menos importante es jugar." for "Playing is the least of importance." and "Lo menos importante es viajar." for "Traveling is the least of importance." Occasionally an abbreviated form like "Eso es lo de menos." is used to mean "That is of the least." or stated more completely "That is of the least (of) importance."

"Lo mas importante," "Lo menos importante," and simply "lo importante" are models for the practice phrases presented below. You may wish to say them aloud with the guidance of the recorded voice of the native speaker which guides you in the pronouncing of them when you dial 276-2762.

IMPORTANT PHRASES:
Say "Ques es lo importante?" (keh ehs loh eem-pohr-TAHN teh)
for "What is the importance?"
Say "Lo importante es hablar." (loh eem-pohr-TAHN-teh eshs ahb-LAHR)
for "It is important to speak."

USEFCL PHRASES:

Say "Lo mas importante es amar." (loh mahs eem-pohr-TAHN teh ehs ah-MAHR)

OTHER PHRASES:

NEW LIBRARY — Molly Lloyd-Smith, librarian at Kempton Street School in Spring Valley, arranges some reading materials in the school's new library.
At the end of last year's term, the cafeteria and teachers' lunch room were cleared and made into the library which now houses some six thousand books as well as a computer math machine.
According to school principal Dr. J. Smith Jacobs, plans are underway to expand the library to include between eight and ten thousand books. Jacobs said that the math machine is used by students to work out daily assignment of six to ten minutes on the level bbest suited to each student. He said the computer is able to indicate immediately any mistakes and affords each student an opportunity to account daily progress.
Jacobs said that the new library is one of the most vital and important parts of the instructional program at the school, and that it will be an excellent means of raising the school's reading level.

Entertainment is to be provided by the San Diego Sheriff's dixieland band.

Leon Opolski

Opolski will speak on the theme: "Jehovah's Organization Is Moving Ahead", at the Friday evening session.

The Spring Valley group which started in 1950 with 31 members has now grown to four congregations and 753.

To accommodate the growing numbers of Witnesses in the Spring Valley - Lemon Grove and La Mesa areas a Kingdom Hall was built at 9052 Lamar st., Spring Valley, in 1959. Construction is to start soon on another facility in south Spring Valley which will serve both Valley and Grove Witnesses.

Free, Reduced Price Lunches Are Available

The La Mesa-Spring Valley School District has announced that free and reduced-price lunches are available to students attending district schools who meet certain criteria as established by the State of California.

Each child enrolled was given a letter describing this program to take home to his parents and an application form to complete requesting free or reduced-price lunches for the children of the family.

This is part of the national program designed to insure that all school children, regardless of ability to pay, would have the opportunity for a hot nutritional meal each day they are in school.

The school district receives partial reimbursement from the state and federal government for the cost of the meals.

Any parents who feel that their children may be eligible for free or reduced-price lunches and who failed to receive a letter regarding the program should contact the school their child attends for information regarding the requirements for eligibility.

Aztecs Sign Contract

San Diego State continued its program of upgrading its football schedule last weekend by annuncing a home-and-home series with the University of Wisconsin.

Australia and New Zealand announced withdrawal of troops from Vietnam by the end of 1971.

Students will be knocking at doors throughout the area to sell tickets at $1 each for adults and 50 cents for students. Individuals wishing to support the cause may donate to the students. Donations will be forwarded in the form of tickets, at the rate of one ticket for each 50 cents to such charitable organizations as Home of Guiding Hands and Angels Unaware, by the Mt. Miguel Music Parents Club.

Career Information Center Aids Students At Monte Vista High

A recent addition to Monte Vista High School is a career information center which provides vocational services for the student body.

The facilities of the center assist a student in choosing a career and the education needed to pursue that career. Aid is also given in finding and applying for jobs.

The center is run by Harry Lashmet, career development counselor, and George Walsmith, career development specialist.

The center handles the work experience program, by which a student can obtain school credit while earning money. To qualify for work experience credit, a student must work at least 10 hours per week and a total of 140 hours per semester.

A new service, the exploratory work program, may soon be added to the center. Under this program a student would receive no pay but would obtain valuable experience in such fields as broadcasting, dental assisting, fire service, hospital aid, journalism, photography, teaching, secretarial office work, and veterinary medicine.

Although a student would receive no pay for his work he or she would get training and school credit.

"We will try to find jobs which would give a student some meaningful training that would help later in life," Walsmith said. "We like to form sort of a community classroom."

The center office has a casual atmosphere, and is located away from the more formal atmosphere of the administration building.

"The idea is to make the student feel more comfortable and relaxed so he can speak freely with us," Walsmith said.

Firewood Is Available At Grossmont High

Scrap lumber which would make ideal firewood is available free to the public at Grossmont High School. The wood, which includes many pieces up to 4"x8" size, is all that remains of the school's antiquated bleachers which were torn down earlier this summer.

Interested persons may drive on campus after 4 p.m. daily, or between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. weekends, to load up with the firewood. A left turn on the service road immediately after entering the Murray dr. entrance to the campus will take you to the scrap pile, which is between the football field and baseball diamond.

Northmont Students Visit SV

"We gotta see it," and "We gotta hear it before we believe it," was the philosophy adopted by sixth-graders in Mrs. Martha Rinze's class at Northmont School in the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District last week. The philosophy pertained to the new year-round school program in south Spring Valley.

During a social studies activity on government, several questions were raised by students as to how, why and who were involved in the decision to implement the year-round school.

To answer some of their questions Mrs. Rinze invited George Ashton, acting director of program planning and development, to share his involvement in the program with the students. Ashton was impressed with the interest shown and questions asked by the students and suggested they take a portion of their day to visit the program and interview students personally.

The suggestions was well-received and last Tuesday some 35 sixth-graders were transported to their Spring Valley counterparts at Rancho School to obtain the "grassroots replies."

GET TOGETHER — Northmont Elementary School students mingle with Rancho Elementary School students as sixth-graders get together to study and learn about the year-round school program at Rancho, in Spring Valley. Northmont students were transported Spring Valley last Tuesday for the program.

Matadors Shock Braves, 28-20, In Loop Opener

By Paul Stark

Mount Miguel High School, with help from three touchdown runs by Dan Cowan, shocked the El Cajon Braves, 28-20, in the Grossmont League football opener on the winner's field, last Friday night.

As the game got underway, things looked bad for the local school's defensive unit when Brave quarterback Bob Lucas scrambled 75 yards on a keeper play to put his team on the scoreboard first. Lucas ran up the middle for the extra points to make the score 8-0.

When Mount Miguel got the ball back, quarterback Jess Jenner started the team moving, calling strictly running plays, relying on the inside-outside combo to Dan Cowan and Tim Miller.

Miller and Cowan combined for 46 yards of the 65-yard drive, carrying the ball nine times between them. Cowan got the ball on the final play, plunging in for the TD from the one-yard stripe.

Jenner passed to Mark Dobransky on the two-point conversion attempt, but Dobransky stepped out of the end zone before making the catch and the conversion was no good.

Trailing 8-6, Mount Miguel went to work on the El Cajon defense again in the second period, as Jenner led a 71-yard drive in seven plays for the score.

During the drive, it was Miller picking up most of the yardage, including a 39-yard scoring romp. Miller carried the ball four times, picking up 57 yards, and added the two-point conversion to make the score 14-8.

Mount Miguel got on the scoreboard in the third period on a 60-yard march to make the score 20-8. This time, it was Cowan's turn to cap the drive, busting up the middle from the five yard line for the score.

During the course of the drive, which included eleven running plays and one pass, Cowan carried the ball five times, running up a total of 27 yards. Miller carried the ball four times on outside runs for 16 yards. After the touchdown, Jenner's kick failed.

Just as the game appeared to be leaning toward runaway proportions, the Mount Miguel defense let up and El Cajon's brutal ground game broke through for a score.

Don Digenam scooped up the kick off after the TD on his own 14-yard line and with the help of a couple of key blocks, rambled 86 yards for the six-pointer. El Cajon quarterback Bob Lucas failed on a keeper for the two-point conversion and the score was 20-14.

Mount Miguel got revenge in the fourth period when Dan Weldy fell on a Lucas fumble on the Braves' 29-yard stripe to set up another touchdown.

Dan Cowan got the call to carry the ball for Mount Miguel, picking up 25 yards on three plays, including a ten-yard run for the score. Following his third TD, Cowan carried the ball in for the conversion to make it 28-14.

El Cajon made one final stab at the Matador defense, taking to the air for a 63-yard drive. Lucas capped the drive in the closing minutes of the game with a two-yard run, but failed moments later on the conversion attempt.

Statistically speaking Mt. Miguel controlled most of the game, piling up 399 total yards on 72 plays, while El Cajon managed only 229 yards on 45 plays. Incredibly, 315 of Mount Miguel's yardage came via running plays, including 270 yards from the Cowan-Miller combination.

The Matadors picked up 84 yards in the air, as did El Cajon.

Tomorrow night, the Matadors will try to make it two straight wins when they host the El Capitan Vacqueros at 8 p.m. Last year, El Cap knocked off the local team, 68-6.

The Vaqueros last week dropped a 28-18 decision to Helix, making tomorrow's game a must win situations if the Vaqs are to be considered a threat for the title. El Cap depends largely on a quarterback option play and a solid pass defense, but will need good ground coverage and a lot of passing yardage to knock off the upstart Matadors.

Mount Miguel's rushing offense last week looked to be the best in the league and the offense line has shown vast improvement the last couple of outings.

NEW COURSE RECORD — Terry Cotton, who is out to claim honors as the county's fastest cross country runner, took a long step in that direction last Friday afternoon by shattering the Mount Miguel course record in 8:45. The new mark is three seconds faster than the old record set by Tom Davidson, also an El Cajon runner. Cotton led the Braves to a 24-31 victory over the slightly crippled Matadors. Joe Stubbs, in a fine effort, was just four seconds behind Cotton at the finish of the 1.9-mile course.

Braves Outrun Matadors In Cross Country Opener

The Mount Miguel cross country team, without the services of two of its top runners, dropped the leage opener to the El Cajon Braves last Friday afternoon, 24-31, on the Matador course.

Rick Debus, the Matadors' third man, was unable to run in the race due to a foot injury, and Joe Badger, the second man, failed to finish the race.

Still, Mount Miguel managed to make it a closer race than the Braves preferred. Terry Cotton won the race, establishing a new course record of 8:45, but was just four seconds faster than Matador Joe Stubbs, who shaved six seconds off his own school record, finishing in 8:49.

Bruce Kuehne then came across the finish line for El Cajon, clocking 8:58. He was followed by Bob Morrison in 9:10 for Mount Miguel.

The Braves got the next two positions as Joe Suggs and Bob Thomas came across, followed by Matadors John Klein and Jim Jordan.

The finish of the race was marred when El Cajon coach Wayne Layton claimed that Mount Miguel runners had cut a corner at one point on the course after his runners had been informed they could not cut at that point.

The point in the race in question is where runners are allowed to go through the school's horseshoe pits rather than around them. Five years ago, runners were required to go around because of weeds in the area that were thorned, which could have resulted in foot injuries.

The course was changed to allow runners to cut four years ago when the weeds were removed.

Mount Miguel will have another opportunity at the course tomorrow afternoon at 3 p.m. when the Mats host the El Capitan Vaqueros in what should be an easy win for the local runners.

Behlman Wins, Hitt Cinches Championship

A pair of Lemon Grove men were happy last Saturday night after their performances at Cajon Speedway.

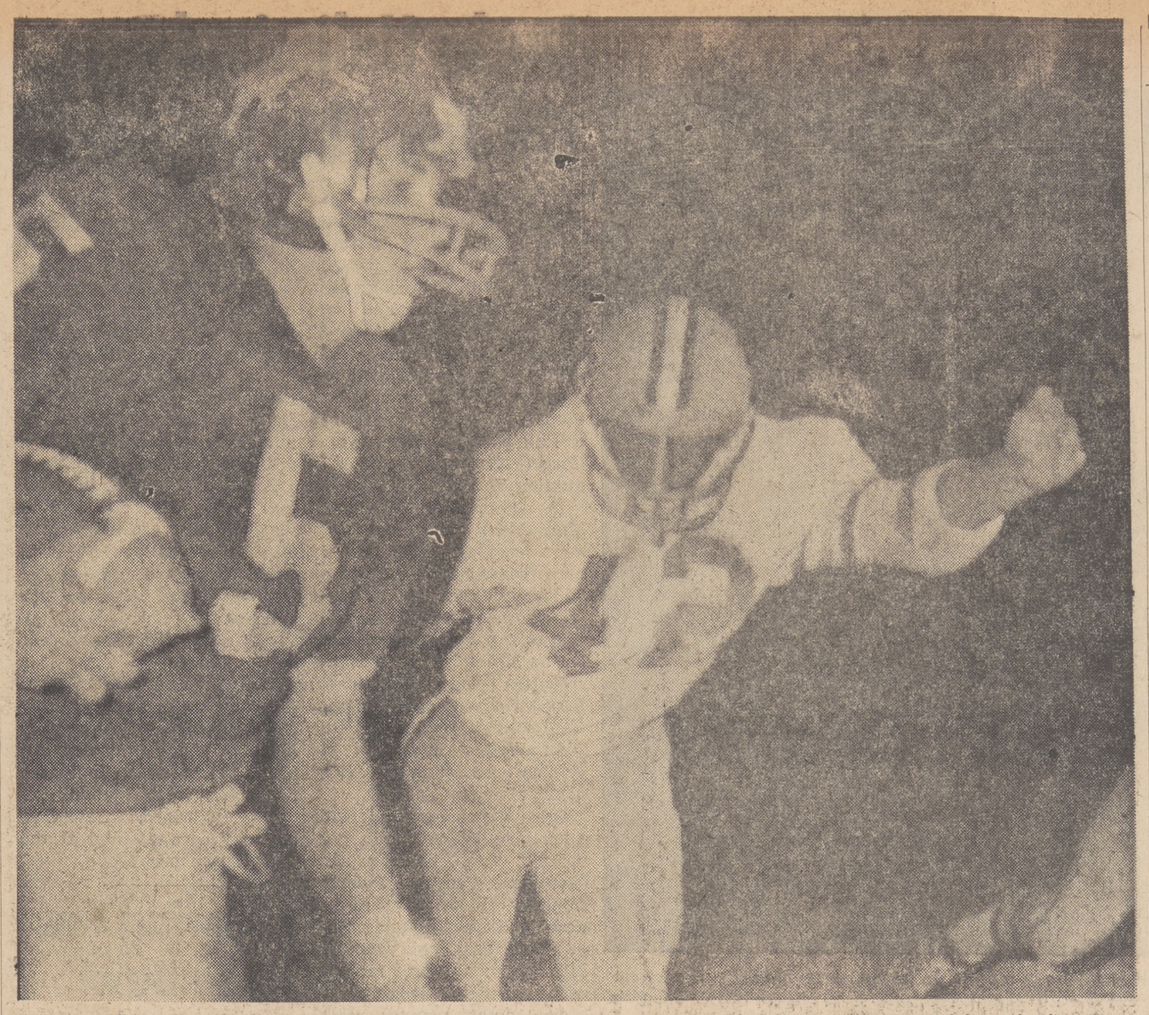
George Behlman and Jim Hitt, both local drivers, finished in the top five at the paved oval. Behlman won the 30-lap main event, but his joy was second to that of Hitt, who wrapped up the 1971 points championship.

At the start of the race, Behlman dueled with Wes Osborn for the first-lap lead, taking it from his outside pole position.

Behlman slowly drew away from the pack until the 17th lap, when a yellow flag closed the pack. After three more laps, the yellow flashed again, but Behlman still had the lead.

A four car battle ensued on the 22nd lap, with Behlman staving off John Borneman, Richard White, and Jim Osborne.

The race came down to the last two laps, White got by Borneman and made a last minute bid to catch the leader. Behlman took the flag less than a length in front of White.



END SWEEP — Quarterback Art Spahr, of the Monte Vista Monarchs, sweeps around right end and is greeted by Grossmont linebacker Travis Hitt. Spahr avoided a bruising tackle on the play by scooting out of bounds, but Monarchs took it on the chin, 35-3, in the Grossmont League season opener last Friday night.

TURNS THE CORNER — Grossmont High School running back Mike Hicks turns the corner on a left end sweep as he heads for a first down against the Monte Vista Monarchs last Friday night. Grossmont whipped the local team to open the league season.

Grossmont Licks Monte Vista Grid Squad, 35-3

By Tom Blattler

The Grossmont Foothillers, led by quarterback Mike Rundle, crushed the Monte Vista Monarchs, 35-3, last Friday night at Monte Vista Stadium.

The senior signal caller completed eight of 12 passes for 143 yards and one touchdown pass, to lead his team to its first victory of the season against two losses.

The Grossmont attack was very well balanced with the Foothillers gaining 149 yards on the ground and 150 through the air.

Senior Larry Olson was the leading rusher for the Foothillers with 89 yards in 20 carries. Olson most likely would have gained over 100 yards in the game, but he only carried the ball four times in the second half.

Monte Vista quarterback Art Spahr again had to run for his life against Grossmont as he did with Clairemont, and as a result the junior was able to hit on only nine of his 22 attempts for 70 yards. Two of his aerials were picked off by Grossmont defenders.

Randy Bowker, a 6-foot-4, 225-pound senior linebacker, nabbed one of the Monarchs' passes with the other going to senior safety Dan Koskinen.

The tough Foothiller defense held the Monte Vista ground game to just 20 yards in each half. The defense was led by 220-pound, middle linebacker Travis Hitt. Hitt was a first-team all-League pick last season at outside linebacker.

Grossmont's first touchdown was a four-yard off tackle play by junior Mark Fahl, brother of last year's Grossmont quarterback Matt Fahl.

The Foothillers then scored on a pass play from Rundle to senior wide receiver Shawn Mitchell covering 12 yards.

Grossmont's last score of the first half came on another off tackle run by Mark Fahl. This time the play covered three yards.

A 34-yard pass from Rundle to Olson set up the Foothillers' fourth touchdown of the evening. As Olson's running mate, senior Mike Hicks drove over from the one to make the score 28-0.

Monte Vista's only score came with one second left in the game when Dave Enriquez kicked a 38-yard field goal.

The Monarchs' next opponent will be the tough Santana Sultans at the El Capitan Field tomorrow night.

Monte Vista Harriers Best 'Hiller Team

The Monte Vista High School cross country team, on the power of a one-two-three punch by Gary Close, Tom Wendt and Mike McGrath, had little trouble in winning the season opener of Grossmont Friday afternoon over the Monte Vista course.

Despite the 19-38 score, the meet was much closer than the Monarchs had expected, as George Pullen and Bob Wilson were not far from the Monarch front three.

Pullen was just 26 seconds behind school record hloder Close in the 1.9-mile race, with Wilson just 16 seconds in back of Pullen.

Mike Stewart and Jon Sinclair closed out the Spring Valley school's scoring, taking seventh and eighth places.

Monte Vista fared even better in the junior varsity and freshman races, racking up scores of 17-38 and 15-50.

Elsewhere in the Grossmont League, El Cajon Valley beat Mount Miguel, 24-31 on the Mount Miguel course; Helix blasted El Cap, 19-41 on the winneds' course; and Granite Hills beat the home team Sultans, 21-35.

Ducks Unlimited Party On Tap This Evening

A $4,000 Ford Bronco, four original waterfowl paintings, seven shotguns, a Labrador retriever, and a four-man tent complete with Primus kitchen, heater, two cots and two chairs, are among the 50 prizes, valued at over $10,000, which will be given away tonight at the 28th annual San Diego Ducks Unlimited fund-raising party at the Town & Country Convention Center in Mission Valley.

In addition, Les Kouba of Minneapolis, internationally-known wildlife artist, will fly here from the midwest to do an "instant" painting on stage during the dinner to be auctioned off as a donation to Ducks Unlimited for its conservation work in Canada. Kouba sold one of his instant watercolors for $900 at the DU Party here two years ago. He has been brought back by popular demand.

Other donated prizes include a portable TV and radio, gold wrist watch, prescription shooting glasses, Polaroid camera, binoculars, motorcycle, a 12-ft. inflatable English-made boat, two roundtrip PSA flights to San Francisco with two night's lodging, outboard motor, camper rental for one week, a duck shoot at a private gun club, an all-expense weekend for two at Rancho Bernardo, and season passes for two at Del Mar races, and all home games played by Padre baseball and Chargers football teams.

Miss San Diego, Toni Yuskis, will double as Miss Ducks Unlimited to help distribute prizes. Thirty-five volunteer PSA stewardesses and reservationists will be hostesses at the party.

Four original waterfowl paintings have been donated this year, including a 16x20 oil painting of pintails by Angus Shortt of Winnipeg, art director of Ducks Unlimited in Canada. Three oils were done by local artists: Canvasbacks, by Herb Minshall of San Diego; Canada Geese, by Beebe Hopper of Chula Vista; and Widgeon Decoys, by Richard Gabriel Chase of La Mesa.

A gourmet dinner of boneless breast of capon stuffed with wild rice and claret wine will be served at 7:30 p.m., preceded by a complimentary cocktail hour. A sound-and-color movie, "Call of the Wildfowl," will have its premiere showing here.

Tickets are available from DU committeemen or any Stanley Andrews sports goods store in the county for $30 each, $20 of which is a tax-deductible contribution to Ducks Unlimited. A few tickets may be purchased at the door, space permitting.

Drawing For Rose Bowl Tickets Set

A post card drawing for 3,500 tickets to the 1972 Rose Bowl football game in Pasadena will be conducted later this month by the Pacific-8 Conference and Tournament of Roses.

Persons interested in entering have until October 15 to send a card containing name and mailing address to "Rose Bowl, Box 1800, Pasadena, California 91109."

The card may be mailed from any post office. Letters are not acceptable and no money should be sent until requested.

"This will be the only public sale of tickets, said Tournament President Virgil J. White. "The conference schools distribute the remaining tickets to our New Year's Day game."

Shortly after the October 15 deadline, 1,750 cards will be drawn with each "winner" entitled to purchase two tickets after receiving an application from the Tournament.

CLOWNIN' QUARTERBACKS— Spring Valley Shriner, left, 10204 Del Rio rd., clowns with Ray Shukraft, co-chairman of the 27th Shrine charity football game and pageantry scheduled Saturday at 7 p.m. in San Diego Stadium. Ferguson, president of Al Bahr Temple's Clown unit, said the game between San Diego State and University of the Pacific will benefit 22 orthopedic and burn hospitals operated by the Shriners in the United States, Canada and Mexico.

Aztecs To Meet U. of Pacific For Shrine Benefit Saturday

SAN DIEGO — The Aztecs of San Diego State College will be gunning for their second win of the season Saturday when they meet the University of the Pacific in the 27th playing of the Shrine charity football game.

Kick-off is scheduled at 8 p.m. in San Diego Stadium.

Fresh from a convincing 30-10 victory over Northern Illinois, State coach Don Coryell's men will be facing a UOP eleven that has yet to reach the win column this year.

UC Santa Barbara took the measure of the Tigers 21-7 last Saturday to give Pacific an 0-4 record for the season. Thus far, UOP has bowed to Miami of Ohio, the University of Texas at El Paso and Long Beach State.

Aztec quarterback Brian Sipe is credited with engineering State's Northern Illinois win, which snapped a three-game losing streak dating back to the 1970 season. This skein includes a 10-0 loss to Southern Mississippi two weeks ago.

While State and UOP will provide the gridiron action Saturday, a total of 11 marching bands and 33 precision drill teams will display their talents in colorful pre-game pageantry.

Stepping off at 7 p.m. will be more than participan's in what has come to be regarded as one of the largest massing of musicians and marchers at a single San Diego county event.

The activities again will feature a mammoth fireworks display and the introduction of youngsters currently under the care of a Shriners hospital for crippled children.

Proceeds from Saturday's game, they said, will directly benefit the 22 orthopedic and burn institutions Shriners operate in the United States, Canada and Mexico.

Warriors Face Lakers In Hoop Doubleheader

A faster, much-improved Golden State Warriors squad collides with the powerful Los Angeles Lakers in the main event of a National Basketball Association pre-season doubleheader Saturday, at the San Diego International Sports Arena.

The Warriors-Laker clash tips off at 8:45 p.m. following a 6:30 p.m. arfair pitting former UCLA star Sidney Wicks and his Portland Trail Blazer teammates against last season's resident cage crew, the Houston Rockets.

Golden State has slated seven Sports Arena home dates in 1971-72 and looks to be stronger than last year's second place Pacific Division finisher. The Warriors feature the defensive prowess of 6-11 center Nate Thurmond, five-time competitor in the league all-star game.

Speed and aggressiveness have been augmented through the additions of Cazzie Russell and Jim Barnett, obtained in off-season trades. In addition, newcomers Odis Allison from Nevada U. and 6-9½ Cyril Baptiste from Creighton University figure strongly in the plans of coach Al Attles.

The Lakers, Pacific Division titlists, counter with awesome Wilt Chamberlin, 7-1 and 275, at center. Chamberlin, the greatest scorer and rebounder in the game's history, shares starring roles with Elgin Baylor and Jerry West. Chamberlin has averaged 33 points a game during his career while West and Baylor are 27.8 and 27.5 respectively.

The Houston-Portland clash will display the Rockets' sensational 5-9 Calvin Murphy and center Elvin Hayes. Murphy was one of the NBA's top rookies last year while Hayes had a 28.7 scoring average, third best in final league statistics.

Portland will showcase 6-9 rookie Wicks, leader of UCLA's national championship collegiate five.

October is 'Bag' Month

County and city officias, led by Aztec football coach, Don Coryell, opened "Bag Your Trash" month with an open air luncheon under the trees in Pepper Grove, Balboa Park.

The project is to encourage residents to use plastic bags in garbage and trash disposal, according to Harry LaDou, who heads the War Against Litter Committee.

Polyethylene bags, he said are inert and therefore do not pollute underground waters. The bag material "ventilates" the soil to dissipate gases formed when organic material decomposes to minimize fire or explosions.

Bags speed trash pickups, reduces noise and reduces wind-blown litter at fill sites.

Bags many be purchased at various retailers including markets and hardware stores.

Choral Club Hold First Swim Party

"Dutch Treat" was the theme of the San Diego Choral Club's first fall luncheon and swim party held recently at the home of Mrs. Don Palthe, 3126 Mission Village dr.

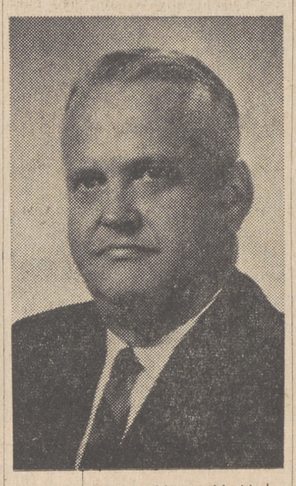
Decorations and name tags created by Mrs. Palthe carried out the theme.



RE-ELECTED — Harry H. Holthusen, president of Imperial Savings and Loan Association of the South, with a branch in Lemon Grove, has been elected to a three-year term as director of the California Savings and Loan League.
Holthusen joined Imperial in 1947 and was elected president in 1962.
Imperial Savings is San Diego County's largest state-chartered association and is a subsidiary of Imperial Corporation of America.

Dr. Nyhan Gets March of Dimes Research Grant

Dr. William L. Nyhan, chairman of the department of pediatrics at the University of California, San Diego, has received a March of Dimes research grant renewal of $65,510, it was announced by Thomas V. Prendergast, chairman of the San Diego-Imperial Chapter of The National Foundation-March of Dimes.

The amount is for second-year support of Dr. Nyhan's work on prenatal diagnosis of birth defects. He and his colleagues are analyzing chormosome defects and errors in fetal metabolism using amniocentesis and cell cultures. These techniques enable doctors to remove a sample of the amniotic fluid surrounding the fetus in the womb as early as the 12th week of pregnancy, and to study the cells from the unborn baby for biochemical and chromosomal signs of inherited birth defects.

The gibbon ape has such long arms they reach the ground while standing erect.

WEDDING SET — Dr. and Basil W. Maloney, of 10075 Grandview dr., Casa de Oro, announce the engagement of their daughter, Judith Ann, to Jack L. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Williams, of 1141 Buckskin dr., El Cajon.
The bride-to-be is a graduate of Monte Vista High School and Grossmont College. Her fiance is a graduate of El Cajon Valley High School and currently attends San Diego State College, where he will receive his BA degree in June.
The couple plans a January 28 wedding at St. Martin's Catholic Church in La Mesa, to be followed by a honeymoon to San Francisco. The newlyweds will live in Brookside.

Norton Pummels Win From Woody

San Diego heavyweight Ken Norton punched his way to a 10-round decision Wednesday night over New York State Champion James J. Woody.

The fight nearly filled the San Diego Coliseum and 2,100 fans yelling their approval of the outcome after showing partisanship for Woody in the early rounds.

Both fighters weighed in a 290¼ with Woody, stocky and aggressive, carrying the fight to Norton until he suffered an eye cut early in the fight. The eye was closed by the tenth. Norton, a 27-year-old ex-Marine, rang up his 24th victory in 25 fights; his record marred only by a knockout in Los Angeles a little over a year ago by Jose Luis Garcia. Woody lost a split decision to Garcia four months ago for a 19-9-1 record. MG

Cash For Trash Concept Spreads

An increasing number of reclamation and recycling programs throughout the nation are expected to collect and reuse more than a half-billion bottles and jars, 300 million aluminum cans, 1 billion metal cans and 11.7 million tons of paper this year.

According to container and packaging industry sources, the public is taking economic advantage of the "cash for trash" programs which pay $200 per ton for aluminum, $15 per ton for scrap steel and $20 per ton for salvaged glass.

The reclamation programs, now established in virtually every U. S. community, have been described as an important first step toward the long range goal of total recycling of all usable materials found in refuse.

Monte Vista, Santana Spice Prep Schedule

By John Nicholson

Here's this week's prep sports menu, along with what should be the results:

Football

Helix at El Cajon. El Cajon should get the win by a touchdown because of a slightly superior defense and a bit more experience. Helix, with a weaker pass defense, should move well. Possibly a high-scoring game.

Monte Vista vs. Santana at El Capitan. Monte Vista, when it has a good offensive line and protection for quarterback Art Spahr, has a good solid team. Santana, with an outstanding new coaching staff has fared surprisingly well so far in the year. Call it even.

El Capitan at Mount Miguel. El Cap to win by one touchdown or less over the underrated Matadors. The Vaqueros have an explosive but spotty offense, and Mount Miguel has one of the top running games in the league. The game will hinge on whether or not the Vaqueros can put together a good passing game.

Granite Hills vs. Grossmont at Helix. Grossmont, despite a bad case of the early season "blahs", should wake up long enough to gain a two-touchdown win over the inexperienced Eagles. Of all the Grossmont League teams, Grossmont has the best football talent, although they have had troubles in the early going.

Cross Country

Helix at El Cajon. El Cajon will beat the Highlanders by about ten points, having superior talent and the home course. The El Cajon course is the flatest in the league, which could be a factor, although Helix has run on a fairly flat course, also.

Monte Vista at Santana. A mismatch, despite Santana's home course advantage. Monte Vista has a team loaded with solid runners and should take the win by a 20-point margin. Gary Close will be out for the course record.

El Capitan at Mount Miguel. Another mismatch, as Mount Miguel may even decide to run its jayvee squad against the hapless Vaqueros. El Capitan has some promising young runners, but none that compare to the Matadors' front five harriers. Look for a perfect score, unless Mount Miguel runs its jayvee.

Granite Hills at Grossmont. This looms as the week's best battle, with Grossmont the choice by five points. Granite Hills is another of the young teams that could be good in the next few years but will have trouble with the Foothillers, although the Eagles are used to the type of course, which has a downhill finish.

Football games will get underway at 8 p.m. while the crss country meets start at 3 p.m.

Turn Pockets Ordered For Skyline-Canton

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Residents along Skyline dr. in Lemon Grove, for 350 feet north and south of Canton, have finally lost their struggle to retain on-street parking. The street is 64 feet wide, curb to curb.

On Tuesday the Board of Supervisors voted to ban parking so that left turn storage lanes can be provided.

Public Works Administrator David K. Speer said there have been eight left-turning accidents and thirteen injuries there since the intersection was signalized on Feb. 15. He He said lights could not be given left turn phasing without the safety lanes.

It was the third time the board had had the parking prohibition on its agenda. The board previously had authorized lights without safety lanes, against the recommendation of the traffic advisory committee.

One woman said the impending board action was another case of government being taken out of the hands of the people.

Mrs. Mary Gordon said that if her car is hit while being backed out of the driveway, the county will have a lawsuit on its hands.

Chinese Couple Here Celebrate Triple Anniversary

Sam's Far East Restaurant on Broadway in Lemon Grove was crowded with celebrants Friday night when Josephine and Park Sam, the owners, celebrated their Silver Wedding Annniversary.

They also celebrated their eighth anniversary as restaurateurs in Lemon Grove.

They likewise celebrated the first anniversary of their daughter's marriage — give-or-take a few weeks.

More than 25 persons drank Chinese toasts and enjoyed such Chinese delicacies as Special Shanghai duck, shark-fin soup, sweet-sour chicken with lichee iuts, beef with oyster sauce and black mushroom gravy, and other choices. A high-tiered cake climaxed the celebbration.

The couple's daughter, Judy, and her husband Neilsen Tom, of San Francisco, attended the celebration. Judy is a teacher in Alameda. Another daughter, Sylvia, who lives at home, is a student teacher in Santee.

The Park Sams live at 3173 Elm st., San Diego.

Indian Singer Planned Today

Floyd Westerman, a full-blooded Sioux who "speaks and sings of the soul of the Indian", will appear in concert today at Southwestern College, as part of the Artist/Lecture Series for the fall season. Westerman will present his concert in Mayan Hall at 11 a.m.

Westerman was taken from his parents and raised in boarding schools until he was fourteen, when he struck out on his own and overcoming the stigma of the reservation, worked his way through school.

He graduated from Northern State College in Aberdeen, South Dakota. He has since traveled around the United States, speaking and singing before audiences on the reservations and at many schools and colleges.

NEW PRESIDENT — Ivan E. McDermott, an insurance firm representative, looks over the shoulder of Jim Dorman, right, as he assumes the presidency of the Old Time Days Association. Dorman served as president for two terms but rejected another term due to pressure of other duties. McDermott heads a new slate of officers for the 1972 Old Time Days event.

Ivan McDermott to Head Old Time Days Association

Ivan E. McDermott, an insurance firm representative, was elected president of the Lemon Grove Old Time Days Association.

He succeeds Jim Dorman, who has served for two full terms. Dorman, an attorney, rejected the invitation to serve again, citing his election to the L.G. Elementary School Board of Directors; his vice presidency on the L.G. Lions cluz, and his need to devote time to his legal practice as reasons for declining to serve the third year. In most service clubs such as the Lions, the vice president becomes the president and if this happens, Dorman would be serving three important local organizations.

The Association, in addition to naming officers, decided to hold next year's parade on Sunday. "I will give more people and their kids a chance to view the affair," McDermott said.

He said Old Time Days would be Friday, Saturday and Sunday, May 19, 20 and 21 with the parade set for 1:30 May 21.

Association members noted the Sunday date would encourage more bands to participate. It will be determined later whether or not official competition will be held among the contestants.

Named to put together next year's celebration with President McDermott were: Don McCray, vice president; Bill Rush, secretary, and Al Woods, treasurer.

In addition to these four, directors include Dr. Jerry Legerton, Louise Warren, Bob Mastny, who is also parade chairman; Dr. Sam Smith, Red Goff, who is communications chairman, and Jim Dorman, past president.

The Spring Valley Toastmasters will be announcers for the parade again, it was announced.

OTD Association was incorporated May 29, 1968.

There will be another meeting at the L.G. Chamber of Commerce office at 3415 Imperial ave. Oct. 20 at 7 p.m. In addition to officers, all interested persons may attend.

Hostesses for the evening are Mmes. P. N. Pantazoplus, Orville Reese and William S. Sayward.

Mental Health Group Re-elects Andreen

San Diegan Robert E. Andreen, Grossmont High School district trustee, has been re-elected president of the California Association For Mental Health at the annual meeting of voting membership in Oakland, California.

Florida has about 83,000 people on the state payroll.

L.G. Fire Report

The Lemon Grove Fire Department, for the week of Sept. 27-Oct. 4, answered five fire calls and three rescue calls.

The most serious fire was to the King Johnson home at 7345 Albedi st., where a member of the family had been frying french fries on the kitchen stove and grease ignited the room. Johnson came home from work at 12:55 a.m. and extinguished the flames with a garden hose. Loss was estimated at $1,000.

Children playing with matches accounted for two grass fires.

C. H. Pittman Graduates

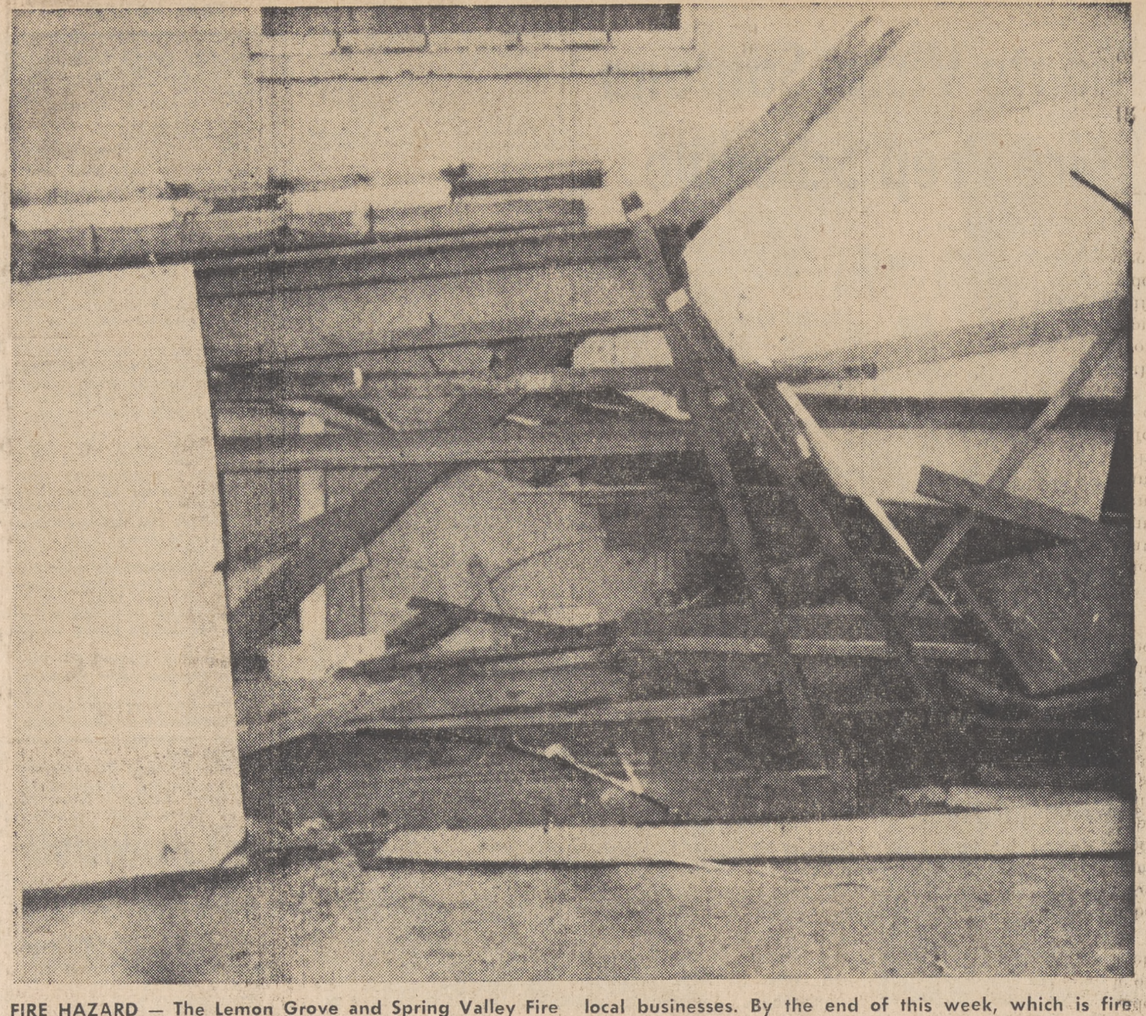
C. H. Pittman was graduated from the American Oil Company Dealer Development Clinic and is operating the American Oil Service at 2965 Fifth, San Diego.

During an intensive three-week training session at the clinic, Pittman studied the latest techniques in station management, car care, lubrication, and other phases of operating a modern service station.

Pittman has lived in the area over seven years. He attended the University of Hawaii. With his wife Jean and their three children, he makes his home at 422 Osage st., Spring Valley.

ENGAGED — Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Parchman, of 3310 Sweetwater way, Lemon Grove, announce the engagement of their daughter, Teresa Ann, to Thomas J. Elarde, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vito Elarde, of San Diego.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Cathedral Girls' High School and is currently employed by Pacific Telephone. Her fiance is a graduate of University High School, and is currently attending San Diego State College and working part time at Sears in El Cajon. The wedding is planned for February 12 at Saint John of the Cross Church in Lemon Grove, and a honeymoon trip to the Grand Canyon is planned.



FIRE HAZARD — The Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Fire Departments this week were cracking down on local businesses to clean up debris that causes fire hazards. This photo, taken last week, shows the "before" of one of the local businesses. By the end of this week, which is fire prevention week, it will be cleaned up, according to Fire Marshal Ray Carmody.

101 Degrees Hot

The official thermometer read 101 degrees about 2 p.m. Wednesday—but it felt a lot hotter. The meteorologist at the local fire station said that air-moisture records are not kept so it is not possible to say that it wasn't the heat it was the humidity.

Wednesday, at press time it appeared the temperature would be about the same. Relief was seen by the end of the week. But you know weathermen. Wrong half the time is not a bad average in the weather-guessing game.

Low was 61 degrees.

thing useful to the community."

He said he had not attended a fire directors meeting—they are held twice a month—but he intends to in the near future.

"My wife's nephew has been a fireman in Santee for 5-6 years and my son-in-law, Don Norvell, is a fireman 1st. class with the Lemon Grove Department," he said.

He said the fact these two were in fire protection stimulated his interest in running for the board. He disclaimed that he was urged to run by a group or clique.

"I plan to attend board meetings to find out what they really do before I suggest any changes," he said. "As near as I can tell, the board has done a good job," he said.

Ouelette owns his own home, is married and has three married daughters. "I have no strong feelings about the fire tax rate," he said "but I think they ought to be kept low."

General Fund Gets Boost From Old Savings System

The State General Fund, currently in its annual "dry period" of cash income, has received a small transfusion as a result of the old U. S. Postal Savings System going out of business, according to State Controller Houston I. Flournoy.

The Unclaimed Property Fund administered by the Controller recently received $189,800 from the U. S. Treasury Department as the first payment on California's share of unclaimed deposits remaining since termination of the Postal Savings System in 1967.

"We have transferred $451,000 of this to the General Fund which needs all the help it can get during these first few months of the fiscal year when cash revenues lag far behind expenditures," Flournoy said. The balance remains in the Unclaimed Property Fund to serve any possible claims that might arise.

This was the first of five annual payments from the U. S. Treasury which eventually will bring $795,150 to California out of the total $8,117,183 to be distributed from the unclaimed accounts in the Postal Savings System. Distribution is in proportion to each state's share in the total.

The initial distribution to California included 443 Postal Savings accounts in excess of $25 each which totaled $102,212. The balance of the distribution included "several thousand" accounts under $25 each, Flournoy said.

Under California law, such unclaimed property is subject to claim by the legal owners indefinitely but the assets may be used for General Fund purposes until such claim is made. The accumulated unclaimed property in the Controller's safekeeping as of August 30 totaled $18,280,151.

A king-size adjust-a-bed valued at $770 donated by the Everett Stunz Company of La Jolla.

COMBO-Mart, the informal public auction will be held Dec. 10 and COMBO, the formal dinner auction, will be held Dec. 11. Proceeds from the auctions will go to 10 cultural organizations in San Diego.

Grand Opening At Cleaners

Tana Purdum, 18, of Lemon Grove, is part of a big celebration in Lemon Grove.

Miss Purdum

Tana, and her pretty smile is a main portion of a grand opening of Lemon Grove's newest dry cleaning shop, A-1 Cleaners, at 7121 Broadway in the Alpha Beta Shopping Center.

During the grand opening free balloons and candy are being given away to youngsters, and a contest is being held, with a portable television offered as the grand prize.

The shop is open Monday through Saturday from 7:30 a.m. to 7 p.m.

DECA Students To Hear Wilson

U. S. Congressman Bob Wilson will be keynote speaker at the California State Distributive Education Clubs conference to be held in San Diego in March.

DECA is a high school student centered organization designed for those enrolled in commerce and business career development programs offered by state departments of education and local high school boards throughout the nation.

"Distributive" refers to profession of moving or distributing goods from the manufacturer to the consumer. Sales, advertising and display are some of the fields involved according to Robert Lent, teacher co-ordinator for the DECA program.

Congressman Wilson responded to the invitation of Helix High School. As many as 500 students are expected at the conference. Another conference is scheduled for October of this year but less than 100 students are expected at that one.

Both conferences will be held in San Diego at the Hilton Inn on Mission Bay.

Slide Show Set Tomorrow Night

The Helix Showmasters Club will begin its 1971-72 season with a taped color slide show by Bill and Edith Edic of photos they took while traveling through Africa.

Among the scenes to be shown are Victoria Falls, Serengeti National Park, Ngorongoro Crater, and other landmarks. Also included will be shots of such animals as wart hogs, cape buffalo, and rhinos.

The show will be screened at 8 p.m. tomorrow night in the Ben Polak Auditorium, 8053 University ave., La Mesa. There is no charge for admission and the public is invited.

Off-Season Schedule

Silver Strand State Beach and Old Town San Diego State Historic Park will go into their off-season operating schedule tomorrow, according to Maurice Morgan, who serves as area manager for the State Department of Parks and Recreation.

Morgan noted that the beach will be open daily from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. through April 30, 1972, and minimum lifeguard service will be provided on weekends and most weekdays.
